BURBANK GETS FIGURES

BURBANK LEADING CITIZENS INVESTIGATE ANNEXATION PROJECT THOROUGHLY

H. W. Rouscup, one of the trustees of the City of Burbank, was a caller at the office of the Evening News Monday to get some data on the annexation contest in Glendale. He said the Burbank people had been open to conviction when approached on the matter by the Los Angeles annexation committee, so they had sent a small delegation, headed by Councilman Webster, who favored the plan, to ascertain just what Los Angeles offered Burbank in the way of annexation advantages. This delegation was treated very nicely and was quickly given an outline of the terms Los Angeles offered. These were briefly as follows: First, annex; then vote $450,000 bonds, these to be a lien upon the Burbank taxpayers, to put in a connecting pipe line to convey Owens River water from the San Fernando reservoir to Burbank's water mains; then pay Los Angeles 1 cent an inch for water with no privilege of resale to Burbank citizens; then Burbank was to assume its proportionate share of the Los Angeles water, power and harbor bonds, $55,000,000 in all. These various projects would add to Burbank's indebtedness an annual interest charge of $30,000 with no compensating advantages, as she already has her own water and lighting systems, which are now self-sustaining. The delegation was so unfavorably impressed with the showing made by the Los Angeles annexation committee that those who had most ardently supported the consolidation scheme, were convinced that it would be a losing venture for Burbank. The Evening News certainly commends the action of Burbank in making this fair and complete investigation. We believe every citizen of Glendale should follow this example and weigh the matter, pro and con, and not be hasty about embracing a project that may work to our fair city's harm.

REV. COLE OFF FOR STRENUOUS THREE WEEKS

Rev. C. A. Cole, accompanied by his wife and younger son, started this morning to Asilomar, to teach a normal class in missionary training in the 10-day session of the "Asilomar Conference of Missionary Training Schools." He was selected from among all the Christian ministers west of the Rocky Mountains as the man best fitted for the work and the Glendale Central Christian Church feels that it is highly honored by this selection. After the close of the Asilomar Conference Rev. Cole will go to Santa Cruz to teach five days in the School of Missions held in connection with the Northern California Annual Convention of Christian Churches. He expects to arrive at home on Saturday, August 2d.

MORE SALVATION ARMY THOUGHTFULNESS

Another instance of the Salvation Army's thoughtfulness is seen in their prompt notification by telegram to parents of returning soldiers that their sons have landed. On Sunday Mrs. O. L. Kilborn received a telegram from her son, Farris Brown, stating that he was at Camp Devens, Mass. Monday there came a message of the same import from the Salvation Army headquarters in Boston. Thus if a soldier just landing is not thoughtful enough or has not money enough to notify the home folks by wire, the Salvation Army sees to it that the word is promptly sent.

EVANGELISTS RETURN

E. F. WILDE AND J. H. KNIGHT MAKE OVERLAND TOUR BY AUTO AFTER WORK IN EAST

Evangelists E. F. Wilde and J. H. Knight, whose homes are in Glendale, but who have been in the east for the greater part of the past year carrying on evangelistic work under the Billy Sunday Association, and preaching and singing in big churches in New York and Chicago, have returned to rest. They and their wives motored across the continent reaching here last Thursday and left Monday night for Bear Valley where they have a summer home in which they will spend the next two months and then return to make their headquarters in Glendale and take up evangelistic work in California. While in the east Mr. Wilde made records for the Pathe, Columbia and other phonographic companies which are being issued now. He has a very beautiful voice.

MOVING SLOWLY

CITY IMPROVEMENTS UNDER WAY, BUT HINDERED BY OBSTACLES

The city's various improvement projects are taking their slow but certain course to eventual completion. The opening of Orange street through from Lexington Drive to Burchett is past the stage where it can be held up by any action instituted. Condemnation proceedings to enable the city to acquire title to the strip needed for the street are now being taken. After this work is accomplished, the actual laying out and grading of the new portion will be proceeded with. The Sycamore Canyon wash extension is provided for as far as Windsor Road. Right of way from there to the wash, just south of Acacia street, has been secured so that the drainage purposes of the improvement are taken care of. The street will be continued on southeast till it runs into East Palmer avenue and from there on the course has not been definitely decided upon, depending, of course, on the P. E. loop location. The putting in of a bridge over the Verdugo wash on Brand boulevard to carry the P. E. tracks and the highways on either side, awaits only the P. E. appropriation of $30,000 promised as the county's portion, $40,000, is already available. Paul Shoup has promised immediate action by the S. P. as owner of the P. E. Company, so it is possible that this necessary work will not be long delayed. Should there be another flood like unto that in February, 1914, the wash would most certainly be so clogged up by the present bridge that the water would be diverted to the low ground north of the wash, where incalculable damage would be done. The city authorities are doing all in their power to hurry the two wash projects for they feel that a disastrous flood may be expected any winter now.

CHOIR OUTING

Members of St. Mark's choir enjoyed a very pleasant outing at Brookside Park Monday evening. The party, seventeen strong, left Glendale about seven o'clock and after reaching the park those who enjoy swimming took a dip in the pool while others prepared a wienie roast. After enjoying the refreshments and a social evening they returned to Glendale about ten o'clock. Among the picnickers were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Read, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Faries, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Downing, Misses Champlain, Patterson, Land, Ralston, Tyler and Messrs. Borncamp and Kenneth Jackson.

RECEIVES ENGRAVED ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

M. B. Hartmann is treasuring carefully an engraved acknowledgement, signed by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, for the loan of binoculars during the war, such articles proving to be "the eyes of the Navy." Mr. Hartmann along with thousands of other patriotic citizens who were debarred from active participation in war activities, eagerly embraced any opportunity offered whereby he could do his bit, and it is pleasant for him to feel that his effort was appreciated.

FAREWELL FOR MR. WRIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wright of 100 South Glendale avenue entertained fifteen of their friends Monday evening on the eve of Mr. Wright's departure for St. Louis. The Wrights came to Glendale in November and are so charmed with it that they have attracted their married children. Mr. Wright has not yet severed his connections in the Missouri metropolis and is therefore obliged to return for business reasons, but hopes to so adjust his affairs that he can come back to Glendale to stay in the course of a few months. A very pleasant musical and social evening was enjoyed and refreshments were served at the close.

PLEASED WITH BUSINESS PROSPECTS

A. L. Baird, who a few months ago came out from Chicago, where he had been buyer for a chain of 31 5 and 10-cent stores, and, in partnership with his boyhood friend and schoolmate, Clyde Morrison, bought the Glendale Pharmacy, is mightily pleased with the bargain. He says the business of the store last month was by far the largest in its history, and it is constantly growing. He is greatly in love with Glendale as a residence and business city.

"VIOLATES HONOR AND JUSTICE"

SENATOR MORRIS THUS CHARACTERIZES SHANTUNG SETTLEMENT IN PEACE TREATY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—In discussing the peace treaty Senator Morris today declared he will vote against it unless the Shantung settlement is amended. He declared: "By this act we are planting the seeds of future wars."

He denounced the settlement as "violating every principle of honesty and justice."

LEAGUE OPPONENTS PLANNING NEW MOVE

WILL ENDEAVOR TO MAKE AMERICAN WITHDRAWAL FROM LEAGUE ISSUE OF 1920 CAMPAIGN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Believing that President Wilson will win the fight for the league of nations some of the opponents of the league are planning to make the question of the withdrawal of America from the league an issue of the 1920 presidential campaign. Thus far no one has been found ready to formally sponsor the movement but several are ready to do so as soon as they are convinced it is opportune to do so.

It has been pointed out that it will require two years for the United States to withdraw from the league and it is held that if the voters should order withdrawal in 1920, it would be 1923 before withdrawal could be completed.

THE RAILROAD PROBLEM

RAILROAD BROTHERHOODS PREPARE CONGRESSIONAL BILL PROVIDING FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Representatives of four railroad brotherhoods today announced that labor would present a solution of the railroad problem in the form of a bill to be brought before Congress making the following provisions:

Government ownership with guaranteed interest to bondholders.

Control by a board of fifteen members composed of five to be named by the President, five representing railroad owners, and five representing the brotherhoods.

Equal division of profits between the government and the employes.

Rates to be scaled down to keep earnings within five per cent of gross revenue.

Chairman Esch of the House Interstate Commerce Committee said that little consideration would be given by the present Congress to any plan to extend the government control of railroads.

RULING ON WARTIME PROHIBITION

FEDERAL JUDGE THOMPSON HOLDS MORE THAN HALF OF ONE PER CENT ALCOHOL VIOLATES LAW

PITTSBURG, July 15.—Federal District Judge Thompson today ruled that the sale of beer containing over half of one per cent. of alcohol violates wartime prohibition.

He made the decision in over-ruling the demurrers of three breweries charged with manufacturing beer containing more than half of one per cent of alcohol.

VICTORY CELEBRATION IN LONDON

GENERAL PERSHING AND STAFF REACH DOVER AT NOON AND WILL TAKE PART IN FESTIVITIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, July 15.—General Pershing and his staff arrived in London from France, via Dover, at 12:30 this afternoon. They came on a destroyer and were greeted on landing at Dover by the mayor, the admiral commanding the port and other high officials. Generals Brewster, Harboard, Lassiter and Capt. Frank Pershing accompanied General Pershing and will participate in a victory celebration.

U. S. TRAWLER SUNK BY MINE

ONE OFFICER AND SIX MEN ENGAGED IN MINE-SWEEPING KILLED IN THE NORTH SEA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 15.—One officer and six men of the United States trawler, Richard Buckley, were killed when a mine struck their ship in the North Sea. They were engaged in mine-sweeping. The accident occurred Friday. Two officers were wounded and sixteen men were saved.

The dead include Commander Frank E. King who remained on the bridge directing the rescue of the crew and then went down with the ship. Only one body has been recovered. The trawler sank seven minutes after the mine exploded.

BACK FROM YOSEMITE

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FARLANDER MAKE RECORD RUN OF 350 MILES IN ONE DAY

Mr. and Mrs. William Farlander and family got back to Glendale Saturday night after a record trip to the Yosemite and back. They spent five days in the valley at Camp Curry where they were pleasantly housed in a comfortable bungalow and where they were able to get meals promptly in spite of the fact that 2000 other people were there. Mrs. Farlander is enthusiastic about this National pleasure ground and says it has in no respect been over-rated, though she went prepared to discount the enthusiastic reports she had read and heard. The elevation exactly suited her and she declares she never felt so well in her life. They took many of the trails and visited most of the points of interest and then, as it was beginning to get hot in the valley, decided they would better get home with their children. They left the Valley Friday morning at 8 o'clock and at 6:30 p. m. reached Modesto where they spent the night. Saturday morning they left Modesto for Glendale and reached here at 10 p. m., covering the 350 miles in one day. They hurried some because of their anxiety to quit Bouquet Canyon before dark overtook them. A remarkable feature of the trip is the fact that they had absolutely no tire trouble and made the trip to and from the park without a change of tires.

STOLEN BICYCLE RECOVERED

There was quite an exciting event on Brand boulevard just north of Broadway Monday afternoon. More than a week ago little George Butterly, of West Harvard, had his Blue Bird bicycle stolen from the vacant lot north of the Palace Grand. He advertised his loss and warned all his boy friends to keep a sharp lookout for the missing treasure, offering as an incentive a liberal reward. Francis Morgan saw the familiar bike flying by, propelled by a small boy and at once yelled for him to stop. Not being obeyed he rushed into the street, hauled the rider from the seat and grabbed the bike, which he returned to the owner. The dispossessed lad stoutly insisted that a lady had given him the bicycle and that it was his. Meanwhile George is rejoicing over the recapture of his mount, though it needs considerable repairing, and Francis lovingly fingers his reward money.

DETERMINED TO LIVE IN GLENDALE

C. Gysein, recently of Trinidad, Colo., who leased the east room of the block in which the Evening News office is located for a wholesale sign painting establishment, is so determined to live in Glendale that he has secured temporary accommodations for his wife and two daughters at one of the beach cities while he has fitted up the back part of his shop as a sleeping room, having resolved to camp on the ground so as to secure the first house that is emptied.

INFORMATION FOR DISCHARGED SOLDIERS

Mayor Muhleman recently received from Major Maurice S. Tabor, of the War Department's Insurance Department, a communication stating that his office is desirous of rendering every possible service to discharged soldiers who are anxious to secure definite information regarding their war risk insurance. The communication was referred to the City Employment Bureau conducted by City Manager Watson. Any matters referred to this Bureau by discharged soldiers will be promptly taken up with the War Department by the Bureau.

NEW AUTO BUILDING ENCLOSED

The fine new building to house the Hudson, Maxwell and Essex sales agency of Bartlett & French, which is being erected at the corner of Harvard and Brand, is now entirely enclosed and gives evidence of being one of the most convenient and best arranged for the purpose intended, in the city. It will give ample room for display and handling any number of cars that can be secured and there will be a service station in the rear.

BREAKS AN ARM

Elwood M. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eustace B. Moore, of South Maryland avenue, fell and broke his arm last Saturday. He was climbing around on his play house and slipped. Though he fell but a short distance he struck the ground with force enough to snap the bone called the crazy bone. He is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. Chase.

LAUDS BRAVERY

GLENDALE LADY GETS COPY OF GENERAL ORDER PRAISING NEPHEW'S ACTION

Mrs. E. E. Soper of 433 South Central avenue recently received from her sister, Mrs. Albert Ward, of Wells Bridge, New York, a clipping from an Otsego county paper, containing the following very laudatory notice of James J. Ward, her son, and of course the nephew of Mrs. Soper. It is in the form of a general order and reads as follows

1. Regimental Supply Sergeant James J. Ward, 60th Infantry, on the night of October 14-15, 1918, while in the performance of his duties as Regimental Supply Sergeant personally conducted and led the 60th Infantry Ration Train over roads congested, and in places under heavy shell fire, roads almost impassable by reasons of weather conditions alone, and by reason of courage, good judgment and ability to command and handle trains succeeded in taking the rations to a place designated by the Regimental Commander where the same could be distributed to the men of the regiment by carriers. From this point he, in the absence of a commissioned officer, although his own allotted task had been completed, took charge of, organized these carrying parties and personally conducted them to the men at the front line, this during a time when that area was subjected to a heavy shell fire.

2. I recommend Sergeant Ward for promotion to 2d Lieutenant of Infantry.

J. F. MOWERS,
Captain 60th Infantry.

1. This recommendation is heartily approved. Regimental Supply Sergeant Ward is a very high class and deserving soldier and has demonstrated his ability to command.

2. His excellent work during the recent fighting as cited above is personally known to me.

3. His promotion to grade of 2d Lieutenant is recommended and his assignment to the 60th Infantry is particularly desired in order to assign him to the Supply Company of the regiment.

FRANK B. HAWKINS,
Colonel 60th Infantry.

GOOD NEWS FOR FORMER NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

Capt. Dru Nicoles informs us that he has just received checks for six months' "peace pay" for each of the former members of old 21st company California National Guard, for Jan. 1 to June 30, 1917. The checks are at Cornwell & Kelty's, 107 South Brand, and members are requested to call at once and get their checks.

QUITE A SHAKEUP

The 8:15 car to Los Angeles Monday morning was derailed just this side of the S. P. crossing in South Glendale. The highball was in evidence as the curve just below the San Fernando Road crossing was rounded, but an S. P. train was dangerously near so the tower man closed the crossing against the P. E. motorman too late for him to bring his car to a standstill, so it plunged off the derail and bumped along the ties for some distance before stopping. The passengers were considerably shaken up, but that was better than risking a smashup on the crossing. The east track was used for cars in both directions until the west track could be repaired.

BUILDING PROSPERITY EVIDENT

Prosperity is evident in the building line in Glendale. Every contractor is on the jump and the lumber yards are fairly teeming with work, so great are the demands on them. In fact, so many and so heavy are the shipments that the P. E. and Salt Lake side trackage is severely tested. One lumber firm received six cars of material Monday. At this rate Glendale may catch up in the demand for house room in the next few months.

END OF CARD PARTY SERIES

The last card party of the series which have been given under the auspices of St. Mark's choir and Sunday School, took place Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Mabel Capell, 225 West Elk avenue. About thirty were present and following play, refreshments were served. Prizes for the best scores of the series were bestowed, the gentlemn's trophy going to Mr. Faries and the ladies' to Mrs. Helen Campbell.

HANG ON

"A great many young men go into the business game full of confidence and hope," said a prominent business man recently. "They make great plans, have high aims and high ideals, but the wear and tear of opposition, the discouragement of making mistakes, the constant need of new effort, are too much for them. They can't stand the hard knocks. "Oh, what's the use? they say, 'Luck's against me, and you can't beat luck.' But business is not a game of luck. It is a game of skill and endurance, and it is right up to you. Don't give up the fight. Rub your dimmed eyes, stir up your tired mind, freshen up your enthusiasm—and hang on. With you just as with an organization, the way to meet a discouraging situation is to attack. Be your own general and give yourself your own marching orders. Mobolize within yourself, and say, 'I'm in a tight place. The enemy will get me if I don't get him. I'm going to put every gun I have into action. And I'm going to win.'"

There is always a crowd of human beings just this side of success, many almost in sight of the goal, people who do not have quite stamina enough, persistency enough and courage enough to realize their ambition.

It does not take very much strength of mind to do good work when everything goes smoothly, but to do great work under great discouragement, to keep one's standards up in the face of failure, is a very different matter. This is the test of character fiber. It is the test of the quality of one's timber.

No man is beaten until he releases his grip upon his life again. No man is beaten as long as he faces toward his goal, no matter whether he reaches it or not. But a man is beaten when he turns his face away from the goal of his ambition, and when he begins to pity himself, to whine, to complain, find fault, and try to excuse himself.

A man faces away from his goal when he is constantly talking about his failures or hard luck. How little people realize what they are doing to themselves when they indulge in discouragement, in the "blues," when they think they are nobodies and amount-to-nothings. They little realize that they are etching indelible failure pictures upon their consciousness which will suggest new discouragements and which will present new temptations to give up, to turn back.

There is only one thing for a resolute soul to do, no matter what misfortune comes to him, and that is to set his face like a flint toward his goal and to push ahead, turning neither to the right nor left, though a paradise tempt him, or failure and dire disaster threaten him.

The best of us have days of discouragement and moments when we would be glad to run away from our troubles and responsibilities. In times of depression and despair, when we feel that we amount to but little and doubt whether, after all, life is worth while, there is always danger of playing the coward and running away from duty; of doing something that we shall be ashamed of later. It is better never to take an important step or make a radical change when feeling this way.

When everything seems dark ahead and you cannot see another step, then say to yourself, "I guess it is up to me now to play the part of a man;" grit your teeth and push on, knowing that the gloomy condition will pass; that no matter how black or threatening the clouds, there is a sun behind them which will ultimately burst through. You will be surprised to find what power and courage are developed by this holding on as best you can, in spite of all obstacles. —By Dr. Orion Sweet Marden.

MIDDLE CLASS DEALT BLOW AT BOLSHEVISM

How the middle class of Winnipeg arose and asserted itself will be an interesting story to be told when the history of events current today in that strikebound city is written. For two or three weeks industry in Winnipeg was paralyzed, the wheels of business ceased to revolve, because the wage workers had laid down their tools, their aprons and their pencils in an effort to demonstrate that the ordinary affairs of the city could not be carried on without them. By this showing they expected to be able to dictate the terms on which they would work.

The outlook was discouraging for a time. The strike committee ruled the city, issued permits for various necessary activities and had things all its own way. Then the bourgeoise came back, if we may use the term for the middle class that socialist agitators have applied to them. The bourgeoisie, who had been living by the grace of the labor leaders, took matters in their own hands. They organized a volunteer army of workers from among themselves and began to operate, by their own physical labor, the activities of a city that are necessary to life.

One of their first acts was to take hold of the city water plant and operate it at full pressure. The strikers had been furnishing just enough water to supply the domestic needs of the city. Then the bourgeoise manned the milk wagons and the ice wagons, the bread wagons and all of the wagons of the system of delivery of food supplies. The strikers watched them helplessly, not daring to commit an overt act, for the army and Canadian mounted police had remained loyal and the use of force was out of the question.

The strike remains yet to be settled, but the fact stands out that the middle class, the unorganized suffering public, has called the bluff of the strikers. Men who preferred to spend their leisure in golfing motoring or fishing, have demonstrated that, when it is necessary, they can turn in and look after themselves.

The Bolshevist philosophy that only the actual physical workers are necessary to society has been given a black eye. Winnipeg, for the time, is getting along without them. Modern society is a complex machine of which the workers form only a part. The business men, the professional men and those who cater to the comfort and amusement of the people are as necessary as the man who works in the ditch. The co-ordinating of all of these forces in government is what constitutes democracy. The rule of but one class is not only unjust, but by its very insufficiency it must fall. —Rochester Herald.

Mrs. E. B. Moore and her son, Eustace Benton Moore, have returned to Pasadena to attend the closing sessions of the Nazarene camp meeting.

Thursday evening the choir of the First Methodist Church will enjoy a picnic at Brookside Park and take in all the amusements available, such as swimming, tennis, etc.

Sunday evening Miss Waunita Emery entertained at dinner at her home at 329 North Kenwood street, Miss Margaret Lusby and Messrs. Harold Latter and Evans Cheney of Los Angeles.

Miss Margaret Lusby will entertain at her home on North Jackson street the girls of her Sunday School class next Wednesday night. A business session will be followed by a social evening.

Mrs. Howard L. Anderson arrived in Glendale on Sunday from Colusa and joined her husband who came down about two weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have taken an apartment in the California Apartment Bldg., on Brand boulevard.

Ruth Harwood, daughter of E. E. Harwood, has been quite ill and unable to go to Santa Ana to visit her grandfather there. If she is well enough Mrs. Harwood and children will go the middle or last of the week and remain in Santa Ana until school opens.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Glassburn, of 403 East Palmer avenue, are considering moving to Los Angeles. Mrs. Glassburn's friends in the Parent-Teacher Federation are dismayed as she is one of the earnest workers in the organization and is now president of the Cerritos P.-T. A.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Lucile Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNaughton Barnes, of 1316 Walnut street, to Robert Osborne Meighan, of Pittsburg, but in the employ of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange in Los Angeles. The wedding has been set for August 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Baker report that the letters received from their son Frederick who is spending the summer in Michigan indicate that he is working hard and learning the business of his uncle who is a wholesale manufacturer of candy and ice cream, but that he is also having a good time with his cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Badger, of 1108 Virginia Place, will leave the first of next week for Seattle where they expect to make their permanent home. They have been residents of this city for a term of years and have quite a circle of friends and relatives here, Mr. Badger's mother having a home on Colorado street. Mr. Badger is about to go into business with his father-in-law, Mr. Provolt, in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clark of 346 North Louise street motored to Camp Baldy in San Antonio Canyon to spend the week-end and took with them as their guests H. Carnahan, partner of Mr. Clark, and Mrs. Carnahan. Many things have prevented the Clarks from enjoying their mountain home to the full and they have visited it only twice since last winter.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, Mrs. Minnette Sherman, financial secretary of the district, Mrs. H. V. Henry, president of the Columbus Avenue P.-T. A., and several other ladies of Glendale, who are interested in school matters, will attend the district meeting at Long Beach Thursday. This is primarily a picnic and get-together meeting, but there will be a short business session and discussion when the newly-elected officers will take their seats.

Mrs. Marian Stanton, who formerly resided in Glendale on East Wilson avenue, is now at the White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles recovering from an operation. She has quite a circle of friends here who should be glad to know that she is doing well.

Mrs. R. C. Goudie of 458 West Maple was in the Evening News office Monday, accompanied by her father, Mr. Goss, who recently came out here from Chicago for a short visit. Mrs. Goudie says he is so enamored of Glendale that he will not return to Chicago, but hopes to end his days here.

Mrs. Frank Hill of Clear Lake, Iowa, and her daughters, Marian and Katherine, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hill, of 420 North Kenwood street. She has come to join her husband who has been in Southern California for three months and has gone into business in Los Angeles. They will make their home in Hollywood.

Cecil and Ordean Chase, children of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chase of Riverdale Drive, have been spending a week with their little cousin, James Chase Dobbin, at Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Chase and Miss Scott will be guests Wednesday of Mrs. Minnie Patterson at her beach cottage at Hermosa.

L. R. Beddoe, brother of Elder Beddoe, who has been employed as a nurse at the Glendale Sanitarium since he returned from army service in January, is recuperating from an operation and is looking for less strenuous work. He has been studying cartoon work for the past two years and is doing something in that line, which he greatly enjoys.

MUSICAL EVENING

Miss Dorothy Hunt, of 1007 East Harvard street, entertained with a musical evening, Sunday, her guest list including Miss Marguerite Hauver, of Los Angeles, assistant music teacher at U. S. C. and a graduate of Glendale High, Miss Margery Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rohr, Messrs. Ford, Floyd Kinard, Ted Soddeberg, Mrs. Bertha Wilson and Miss Ruth Wilson. Mr. Kinard has a fine voice and delighted the company with solos, Mr. Ford contributed violin numbers and nearly all the guests gave numbers. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

MUST SOLVE OUR OWN PROBLEMS

Every club, school, church and municipality must depend upon their respective members for the solution of their own problems. So it is with the Glendale community—its problems must be solved by the local people—the outsider knows nothing about our needs and cares much less about them.

KNOCK LOS ANGELES WATER

Mr. and Mrs. Will Snyder of 642 South Evergreen avenue, Boyle Heights, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth of 1729 Gardena avenue. The Snyders declared that the water they get in Los Angeles is horrible and they are compelled to boil every drop to make it fit to drink. They say if Glendale annexes to Los Angeles in the expectation of securing a large supply of fine, pure water, it will be badly disappointed.

Wm. Wrigley, Jr., is planning the operating of a steamer carrying 1500 to 2000 passengers between San Pedro and Catalina Island.

HEALTH "POLICE"

The subject of the second lecture in the series now in progress at the Intermediate School auditorium will be "The Natural Defenses of the Body," or "How the Body Can Protect Itself from Disease." In any well-regulated, municipal "body" (Glendale, for instance), policemen are stationed at various points to preserve law and order and to keep out or expel trouble makers. So in every well-regulated human body "policemen" are maintained to keep intruders out of its "streets" or if access is gained unawares, to imprison them. Not a few "sentinels" only, but millions of them, each one noted for his microscopic size and "blonde complexion," stand guard every second. The movements of these tiny white blood corpuscles in the veins of the body as they attack and surround a "tramp" germ are stranger and more interesting than fiction. Come and learn about these natural defenders of the body and how to preserve their efficiency. Dr. Thomason, who gave the first lecture, is also scheduled for the second, at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Free to all.

GRAND FLEET COMING

Glendale citizens in common with all other Southlanders, are looking forward eagerly to the chance of beholding the largest battle fleet ever assembled on the Pacific coast. This fleet of more than 125 vessels, 11 of them dreadnaughts, will leave Hampton Roads next Tuesday, with many Senators and Congressmen on board, and sail for the Panama Canal. This will be navigated then the fleet will proceed up the coast, stopping at San Diego, Redondo and Long Beach, where all may view the vessels.

LEWIS HARRIS RECAPTURED

While the Glendale police force was keeping a sharp lookout for Lewis B. Harris, the Artesia bank robber suspect, who escaped from jail last Saturday, Harris was captured in Long Beach after a desperate battle with Officer Clendennin. Harris called twice at an apartment house owned by a Long Beach banker and was suspected by the latter's wife who thought she recognized Harris from pictures seen in the papers. An officer was summoned and he found Harris loitering near by. The officer invited him into his auto and started to the city jail with him. Harris first tried bribery, then drew a razor and sought to kill his captor. The officer let go of the steering wheel of his auto though traveling 30 miles an hour and the car ran two blocks without guidance, then crashed into the curb and upset. The officer finally subdued his prisoner, though badly slashed by the razor, and, commandeering a passing auto, landed the desperado in jail at last.

QUICK WORK

More appreciation reached the Glendale News this morning when Mrs. J. B. McAtee, a grateful advertiser who had been seeking a market for fifty White Leghorn pullets telephoned to discontinue advertising them because they were all disposed of. As she told the story, the paper was circulating among its subscribers at four o'clock and before seven o'clock the pullets had been sold and delivered. As she expressed it, "I call that quick work. It's the best little paper as an advertising medium I ever saw. I believe people read the ads before they do the news. I know my ad found a buyer before I had a chance to read the paper myself."

ACE EDDIE WOULD FLY ACROSS PACIFIC

Premier Ace Eddie Rickenbacker, whom Glendale claims an affectionate interest in because he was made an Elk in our own Elks' Club House, has declared his determination to negotiate a flight from Venice to Honolulu and thence to Japan. With his many months of daring aviation over Allied and German lines to give him confidence, he should succeed in the attempt if any one can.

CHAPTER B. A. OF THE P. E. O.

Members of Chapter B. A. of the P. E. O. will be entertained at an all-day meeting and luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. R. M. Brown at 416 North Kenwood street. The hostess will be assisted by Mesdames Beryl Cross and Pearl Guthrie. There will be a brief business session and a program in the afternoon.

PRE-COMMUNION WEEK

The Presbyterians of the Glendale Church have arranged one of the strongest programs for their pre-communion week that has ever been presented to the members and their friends. Last evening the service was for prayer and conference. Tonight, at 7:45, Rev. J. M. Saunders, of New Zealand, will give an up-to-date message on "The World-Wide Vision." He is a most forceful speaker. The general public is invited to hear him. Wednesday evening the pastor will speak on the subject of "Miracles." Thursday evening is known as "Sunday School Night," and the special committee in charge have prepared a surprise, following which a social hour is planned, and refreshments will be served. Friday evening, "Family Night," the committee are bringing to Glendale one of the strongest evangelists of the country in the person of Rev. Wm. P. Nicholson, the great Irish evangelist, who has been conducting special meetings at the Los Angeles Bible Institute. Everybody should hear him. Friday night, 7:45.

WILLING TO SHARE PRAISE

"The French, ever since Foch's victroy, are almost in danger of becoming swell headed," said Immigration Commissioner Caminetti in New York. "And no wonder. The French surely showed great courage and genius in this war and praise and compliments have been showered upon them from all sides.

"Not long ago in a French restaurant I ordered a steak. The waiter took the order and just as he was about to go I cried as an afterthought, 'Well done, waiter.'

"The young man, blushing with pleasure, drew himself up and saluted smartly.

"'But you Americans, monsieur,' he said, 'you Americans also covered yourselves with glory, at Chateau Thierry and Bois de Belleau.'"

A total of 36,248 books and magazines were put in circulation by the Fresno county's libraries during June. In the regular library branches 26,992 books were issued of which 14,724 were fiction.

Keep Them Moving

THE next best thing to "swatting the fly" is driving him away. The sweeping breeze of an electric fan will keep flies from sleeping infants (or adults) and from exposed food on dining table or in kitchen.

A G-E fan costs but a trifle to operate and insures cooling breezes and protection from flies. We have sizes and types to suit every requirement.

STATE NEWS

(By United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—San Francisco is running on in the same wicked old way. She hasn't reformed a bit since the dry law went into effect. Clubs, cafes and even saloons are packed nightly. The bright lights are just as bright and burn longer as there is now no 2 a. m. official closing time, as technically there are not cafes or saloons. The clubs are serving hard ware to members behind closed doors. The saloons (?) are serving 5 per cent. beer in bottles without labels. The cafes supply the selzer—the rounders carry the "kick" on their hip.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—More than 10,000 visitors, including 1000 delegates, have flooded San Francisco for the largest and strongest convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians ever held in America. Delegates opened the convention this morning by attending mass at St. Mary's Cathedral where they were addressed by Archbishop Hanna. All assembled later at the Municipal Auditorium where Mayor Rolph delivered the address of welcome. Sons and daughters of Erin are expected to come here from all parts of California and adjoining states to get their first glimpse of Eamonn de Valera, President of the Irish Republic. De Valera is at present on his way to this city, but is not expected to arrive before Thursday. He will address the convention on that day. On Sunday he will officiate in the unveiling of the Robert Emmet monument in Golden Gate Park. The business of the convention will be the formulation of plans for advancing the cause of Ireland's independence. Demands are made that Ireland be entirely separated from England under the "self-determination" clause of President Wilson's fourteen points. Recent congressional action approved of giving a hearing to the Irish cause before the peace conference at Paris. Simultaneous with the convention of the A. O. H. the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hibernians will also convene.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Charged with assaulting Mrs. Mary Nielson, pretty 20-year-old telephone operator and slashing her cheek with a knife, Mrs. Pearl Gargano, 27, appeared before Judge Oppenheim today. Mrs. Nielson is probably marked for life as the result of the attack. When arrested Mrs. Gargano sobbingly admitted she had made a mistake, that she thought the girl was one who was stealing the affection of her husband. "I was insane with jealousy. I regret this horrible mistake and am willing to make any amends possible," she admitted.

SALINAS, Cal., July 15.—Prohibition has hit the finances of Salinas, says Mayor G. A. Daugherty. In a message to the city council the mayor stated the city will lose 40 cents on the $100 of its annual revenue through the elimination of saloons, which paid $400 per year license fee. The loss must be made up by an increase in the city tax levy.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 15.—Cotton planters of the two great desert reclamation projects of Southern California are sending out an S. O. S. for labor. From both Imperial and Palo Verde valleys is coming the first note of what promises to be an agonized wail for aid in gathering one of the greatest cotton crops in the state's history. Cotton prices are higher already than at any time since the Civil War. Cotton seed prices promise to make the by-product a rival to the lint itself and experts who have inspected the California crop have declared it to be in better condition than those in any other state in the United States, but desert farmers fear they may be prevented from realizing their rosy prospects by the dearth of pickers. It is estimated that nearly 15,000 persons will be needed in the Imperial Valley this year to harvest the crop there, while Palo Verde Valley is ready to put in its bid for five thousand hands. Part of the huge number of workers required by Imperial will be divided with those farmers on the Mexican side of the valley. Reliable estimates show that 45,000 acres have been planted in cotton on the American side, while over 90,000 acres are dedicated to King Cotton on the Carranza side of the line. It is predicted 21,000 bales of cotton will be raised in Palo Verde valley this year. This estimate gives a slight idea of the spectacular manner in which this valley has developed in three years when it is known that only 1,631 bales were grown in the Riverside county project back in 1915. Cotton pickers are paid by the pound picked and it is expected that the price will start at from $1.50 to $2 a hundred lbs. this year. An inexperience person usually picks from 150 to 200 pounds a day, while a few days' practice nets 200 to 300 pounds a day. Experienced pickers average 250 to 400 lbs. daily. Expert gleaners pull 500 lbs. a day. It is nearly 200 miles from Los Angeles to Imperial Valley while Palo Verde Valley is 250 miles from the Southern California metropolis. Steps are under way for a publicity campaign to attract laborers to these valleys in September.

Southern California citrus growers are backing Congressman Randall's measure calling for a tariff of one per cent. per pound on grapefruit, oranges and lemons.

A most pleasing effect has been secured in this conservative design with clear cut lines. The combination front and side porch offers two main entrances.

The exterior is covered with wide siding to belt course, then narrow siding to soffit of eaves, and shingles in gable ends, which produces a very pleasing effect.

The interior arrangement is convenient and cozy and incorporates all late time and labor saving built-in features.

WHERE SPIKE WENT

Answering a question as to what became of the gold spike that was driven into the last rail laid in building the Union Pacific Railroad on its completion in 1869, a subscriber writes: "It was first photographed and then melted up and recast into very small spikes about 15-16ths of an inch long, and they were distributed to the more prominent railroad men present. Among the recipients was my father, now deceased, from whom I received one of the photographs mentioned and a miniature gold spike. There are probably very few of these now in existence. The original spike was full size and engraved with the officers' names and titles. The miniature was engraved with the date, "May 20, 1869," and the words: "Last Spike of the Union Pacific Ry.," and "Presented by D. Hewes."—Outlook.
